THE SHERWOOD FOREST H.O.A. BOARD

Please read all the rules and regulations you signed when you moved in our park. Just a few things to bring to your attention: a driver's license is required to drive a golf cart at any time. Also, you need to put your address on the driver's side of your cart. Anyone with a car, truck, or any motor vehicle without plates must register them at DMV or it will be towed.

1. You need the approved permit to make any modification to your home. The permit must be posted prior to work beginning. If not, code enforcement can fine you or make you take it down.

2. No burning of trash or camp fire allowed in the park - not even in a fire pit at any time.
3. No Pit-Bull, Rottweiler, German Shepherds, Chows or Dobermans are allowed in the park.
4. Your address numbers must be on your home.
5. Basketball hoops, swing sets or

Dandy Leftover Candy

Leftover wrapped Halloween candy can make a fun and delicious candy wreath with just a little yarn and a wire clothes hanger. Shape the body of the hanger into a circle. Have kids tie the candy pieces onto the rounded part of the hanger with the yarn. You might want to tie a pair of safety scissors to the wreath to cut off the candy. Tie on a bow, and it's ready to display and eat.

Happy Halloween

Black cats and night-flight bats and ghosts and creatures that drool; may your season be filled with many a thrill as you watch out for witches and ghouls.

OCTOBER CRAFT CLASS PUMPKIN WINE GLASS CANDLEHOLDER

Monday October 10th CH# 2 1:00 - 3:00 pm

This month we will be making a pumpkin candleholder made from a wine glass. Please bring a wine glass or two (I purchased mine at the Dollar Store). We will supply paint and accessories to decorate unless you want something specific. Class will be $2.00 for one or make a set for $3.00.

Devotional & Church News

By Rev. Frank J. Miller, Sr.

It's an election year. A major election year. A presidential election year. Unfortunately it is an election year when a growing number of citizens are increasingly disappointed in our government. The nation's leaders (in this nation as well as every other nation) will one day stand before God and give an account of their leadership. In the meantime we must live through some rather egregious decisions made by politicians and judges. Since God had been eliminated from the decision making process the results have often been disastrous. Not all leaders are corrupt. Some are adequate while others simply are inept. Before we judge them too harshly remember this, we put them there.

Does the church have any part to play in government? The answer is yes and no. Yes, we are to be good citizens, living peacefully, abiding by the laws, and regularly praying effectively for our leaders at every level. No, there are certain functions of government that are outside the responsibilities of the church. The church does not "carry the sword." That is, it is not the duty of the church to provide protection for the citizens of our county, to raise up an army or a police force. This is the government's area of responsibility, to protect its populace and administer justice. Both church and government are established by God. The government protects and administers justice, the church preaches the message of salvation and administers sacraments. One should not assume the functions of the other.

What does the Bible say about this division of jobs? Plenty! There are several references I could cite but I will offer just this lengthy reference from Romans 13:1-7 (HCSB): "Everyone must submit to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are instituted by God. So then, the one who resists the authority is opposing God's command, and those who oppose it will bring judgment on themselves. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good and you will have its approval. For government is God's servant, an avenger that brings wrath on the one who does wrong. Therefore, you must submit, not only because of wrath, but also because of your conscience. And for this reason you pay taxes, since the authorities are God's public servants, continually attending to these tasks. Pay your obligations to everyone; taxes to those you owe taxes, tolls to those you owe tolls, respect to those you owe respect and honor to those you owe honor."

This passage may be lengthy but it speaks to all of us concerning our conduct. Notice that three times in these seven verses the Bible says that government is "God's servant." It is implied that the government mentioned here is carrying out the role that God designed it for and not neglecting or abusing its citizens. Applying this to our own country tells me that, even though it is a privilege and not a compulsory law, you owe your vote to one of these presidential candidates. Staying at home on Election Day is a sinful waste of a constitutional right, fought and paid for in blood. We only get the government we deserve. Please don't be so ungrateful and negligent on Election

Day - VOTE!!

One specific way the government provides for our protection is in the establishment of a police force. There is no national police as in some countries. But these men and women face challenges everyday that most would not want to endure. This quote came across the internet recently in response to current happenings. I don't know who wrote it but I think it is worth passing on.

"I've got a real simple message to the players of the National Football League: America can get by without you..... America cannot get by without Law Enforcement....."

At the end of the day when folks are in trouble, they do not call for an overpaid football player.....

They call for an underpaid Police Officer!!!"

Some people simply abuse their privileges by confusing "rights" with "respect" and "responsibility." Just because you think you have the right to do something doesn't mean you should do it!

Activities have geared up for the fall and winter months. The choir has begun rehearsing under the leadership of Phyllis Quigley, and singing at the Sunday morning worship service with Rev. Paul Stence once again directing. Rev. Jim McElravy again heads up the monthly Prayer Breakfast starting on Saturday, October 8 at 8:00 AM tentatively in Denny's Restaurant across from Old Town. And the weekly Prayer Meeting and Bible Study begins on Wednesday, October 19 at 10:15 in clubhouse #2. This year we begin with a study of Paul's epistle to the Galatians. Please join us for these spiritually enriching events. May God shed His abundant love in your heart today and always!
